Within the cultural program of the AVANTGUARDA cycle, we have the opportunity to participate in the debate group formed by Vicente Molina, architect and specialist in artificial intelligence, Beatriz Borque, architect and landscape designer and Aixa del Rey from Flexo Arquitectura, with the theme of experimentalism 'where are we going?'. The event will be moderated by Anna Castellà.

We will see the challenges of the future that contemporary cities face, if from architecture and urban planning we can imagine optimistic scenarios escaping from this dystopian vision with a lack of resources such as water and a polluted atmosphere.

Vicente Molina, architect of mtres studio in Madrid, is director of training courses on architecture and how to work with artificial intelligence.

Beatriz Borque, architect and landscape designer for the Escola Técnica Superior d'Arquitectura de Barcelona (ETSAB) and the École National Supérieure de Paysage de Versailles (ENSP), is currently working on several architecture and landscaping projects. In addition to his professional practice in the studio, he also works in the theoretical and academic field.

Flexoarquitectura is a studio founded in 2002 by Tomeu Ramis, Aixa del Rey and Bárbara Vich, which since 2017 has been directed by Tomeu Ramis and Aixa del Rey. A study based in Barcelona interested in the capacity of any project to make sense within a particular cultural context utilising the resources ? both conceptual and narrative- and the constrictions - technical, economical and material- as the opportunities from which to build the project?s strategies.

At the end of the debate there will be a dinner-colloquium with the speakers at the Barhaus restaurant. You can sign up by sending an email to comunicacio.tar@coac.net.

Within the cultural programming of the AVANTGUARDA cycle, we have the opportunity to listen to the architectural cooperative Arqbag, where Bernat Colomé will offer us a conference on the theme of environmentalism, with the title 'Subject / Matter / Air'. The event is presented by Anna Castellà from Arjub.

Arqbag are an architecture cooperative that promotes new models of relationships between people, habitability and territory. They understand architecture as the transversal management of energy, environmental, economic and social resources. We notice and value the process and not just the result.

They apply a scientific method of work to all types of projects they develop. The purpose of this methodology is to detect indicators, collect data, generate content, parameterize and socialize the objectives, in order to propose strategies based on an objective, transversal and collective vision.

They understand sustainability from an affordable and accessible condition. They are committed to approaching, participating, sharing knowledge and empowering users, building tools for decision-making and collective learning.

At the end of the conference there will be a dinner-colloquium with the speaker at the Barhaus restaurant. You can sign up by sending an email to comunicacio.tar@coac.net.
